

In a perfectly equal society, X% of people accumulate X% of total wealth

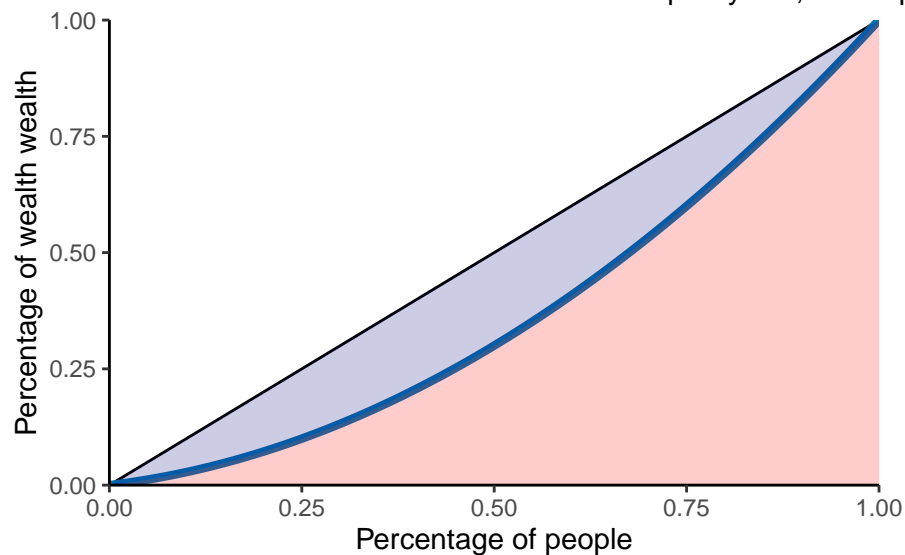

As societies become more unequal, the lower % amass a smaller percentage of wealth

Doing this for all points defines the Lorenz Curve

The farther the Lorenz Curve is from our equality line, less equal a

The Gini Coefficient is the ratio between Area A and the

The greater the Gini Coefficient, less equal a society

